Dutch Aviation Open Golf 2003

October, 2003

Renamed Trophy for Erik Goedhart

The winner of the fifth edition of VZM's Dutch Aviation Open Golf Tournament on September 9 was Erik Goedhart. He was the first to take possession for one year of the renamed Hans Minnee Challenge Trophy. This year the tournament was played at the demanding Nunspeetse Golf &

Country Club. Still the scores of the top players were quite close to last year's results. Erik, won with 35 Stableford points, while runner-up Peter Bottomley came very close to winning with 34 points. A last minute application paid dividend for René Drost. He ended third with 33 points.

Jan Gerrits wins clinic match

The Nunspeetse pros Donald Armour and Ed van Straaten of this year's clinic did not only teach the clinic participants the basic swings in golf, but also organized a match over six short par 3 holes. First time participant Jan Gerrits was the revelation of the clinic, missing a hole in one by only a few centimeters. Jan won the match with only 19 strokes – one more than par. Although runner-up Peter Bulckaert trailed with nine strokes, his score of 27 was still impressive. Frans de Vries got a consolation price, a computer golf game, as he ended last in the clinic match.

For your 2004 Agenda

The Dutch Aviation Open Golf Tournament on the second Tuesday of September is a tradition by now. So, block September 14, 2004 in your agenda to make sure you don't miss next year's edition and the opportunity to challenge the defender of the title, Erik Goedhart.

The Hans Minnee Challenge Trophy

To honor Hans Minnee, who passed away suddenly in April 2003, the trophy of the Dutch Aviation Open was renamed the Hans Minnee Challenge Trophy. Hans was the driving force behind the golf tournament and a warm friend for all the all the participants of the first four editions.

The trophy is a sculpture by Gary Price. Hans Minnee discovered it during a business trip to the US some years ago. What makes it even more precious is that Gary Price first-born son, Zacharias, modeled for it.

More information about Gary Price's work can be found on his web site: www.garyprice.com.

VZM Management Services

VZM Management Services has provided organization change leadership, interim executive management, and advice to the commercial aviation industry from their headquarters in The Netherlands since formation in 1996. With the expansion to an office in Cincinnati, Ohio, the VZM team is able to better serve clients in the Americas.

Sadly, the team lost Hans Minnee in April of 2003 to a sudden illness. Hans was both a key leader and a personal friend to VZM, so he cannot be replaced. However the VZM team has vowed to carry on to serve customers and achieve the goals that Hans helped define for the team.
